Volunteers Wanted

Volunteers are wanted to give the patient's view at this year's NKF Conference, at the Royal Court Hotel, Keresley, Coventry from October 1st-3rd.

The programme reflects the theme of "Time for Quality Time" with presentations looking beyond Part 1 of the National Service Framework. There are four 10-minute Patients View slots following selected speakers, when a patient will give a personal view of the subject - not commenting on what the speaker has said but explaining how he or she feels about the issue.

If you feel that you would have something to say about the "The Future Shape of Renal Services", "Blood-washing of Antibodies", "Preventing Diabetes Patients becoming Renal Failure Patients" or "Ethics - Payment for Donor Organs" or if any of these subjects has affected you personally, please get in touch with office manager Jenny Bartlam at the Worksop office.

This is a full programme with something for everyone. On the social side, the Saturday evening dinner is accompanied by entertainment in the form of table magicians. As always, the opportunity of meeting old and new friends.
